FOUNDED 1893

FOREWORD

The basic decision in the production of a yearbook is the choice of a theme. Since its founding, University Military School has placed emphasis on the highest ideals for young men. We have, therefore, selected for the 1964 Cadet theme the aspects of strong character which are stressed in our school.

To these ideas and ideals we dedicate this book: faith, knowledge, wisdom, discipline, sportsmanship, cooperation, fellowship, service, and integrity.

This we believe — that no school anywhere can surpass our UMS in teaching and developing these sterling qualities and thereby producing young men of the highest caliber.

DEDICATION

BRAZIL SIMON

For many years he has served University Military School, giving at all times an unselfish and untiring effort to serve his fellow men and to befriend all those with whom he comes in contact. To this beloved friend of U.M.S. students over the years, we dedicate this book.

THE FEAR OF THE LORD IS THE BEGINNING OF WISDOM

CADET PRAYER

Dear Lord and Heavenly Father,
As we search for knowledge and wisdom,
Grant that we may not forget
That Thou art the Giver
Of all good and perfect gifts.
Teach us to play the game with honor,
In our work and in our play.
May our words and deeds be such
That those who were before us
Will not be ashamed,
And those who follow after
Will find in us
An example of truth and courage—
The spirit of our school.
Give to us a noble spirit
That we, with our teachers,
May go forward to achieve
The highest goals in life.
Bless our school,
And all who teach,
And all who learn.
And Thine be the honor,
And glory forever.
Amen

Composing the janitorial staff are Daisy Jackson, Francis Jackson, Alfred Jackson, Elizabeth Harriel, Sadie Hopkins, and James Donald.

CAFETERIA STAFF

The Cafeteria staff in action!

ACADEMICS

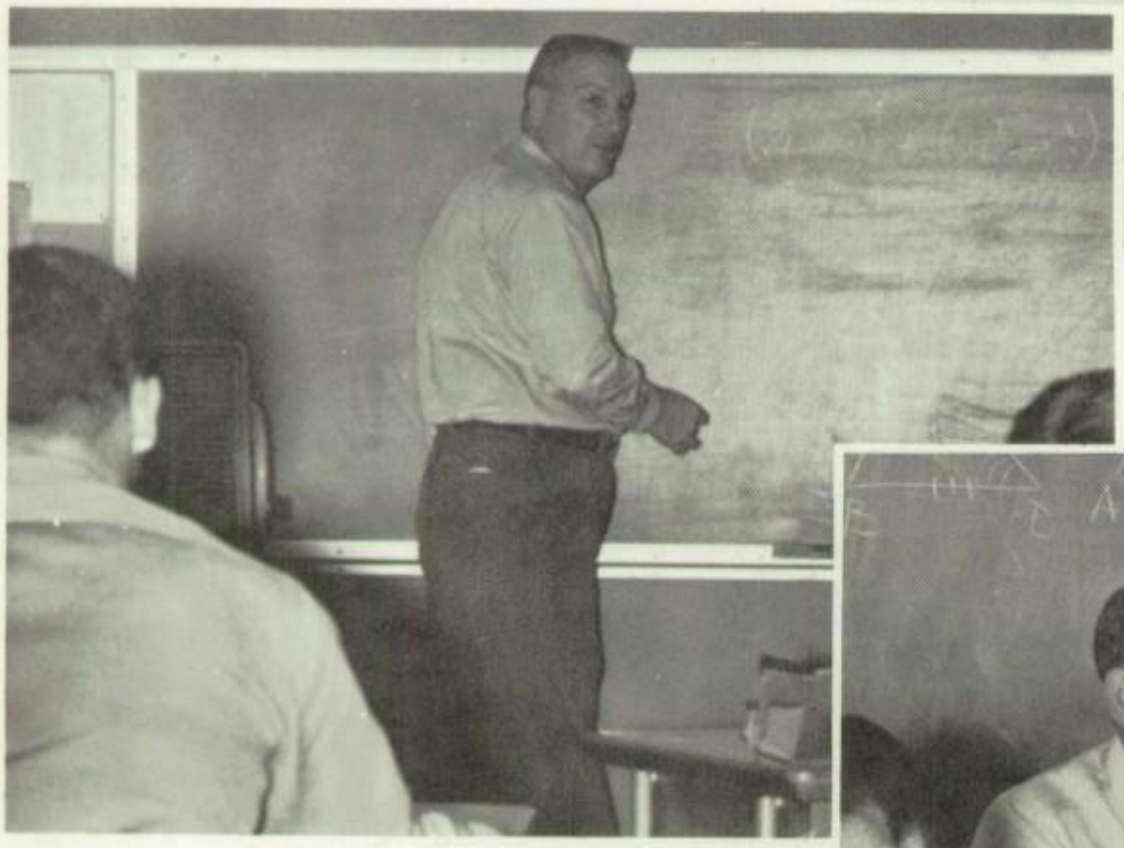
It is the learner, not the teacher, who is the active producer of knowledge and ideas.

KNOWLEDGE

MATHEMATICS

Mrs. Moore looks over one of her advanced mathematics classes before the period begins.

Captain McCuiston and Willis Sherwood inspect the conic sections.

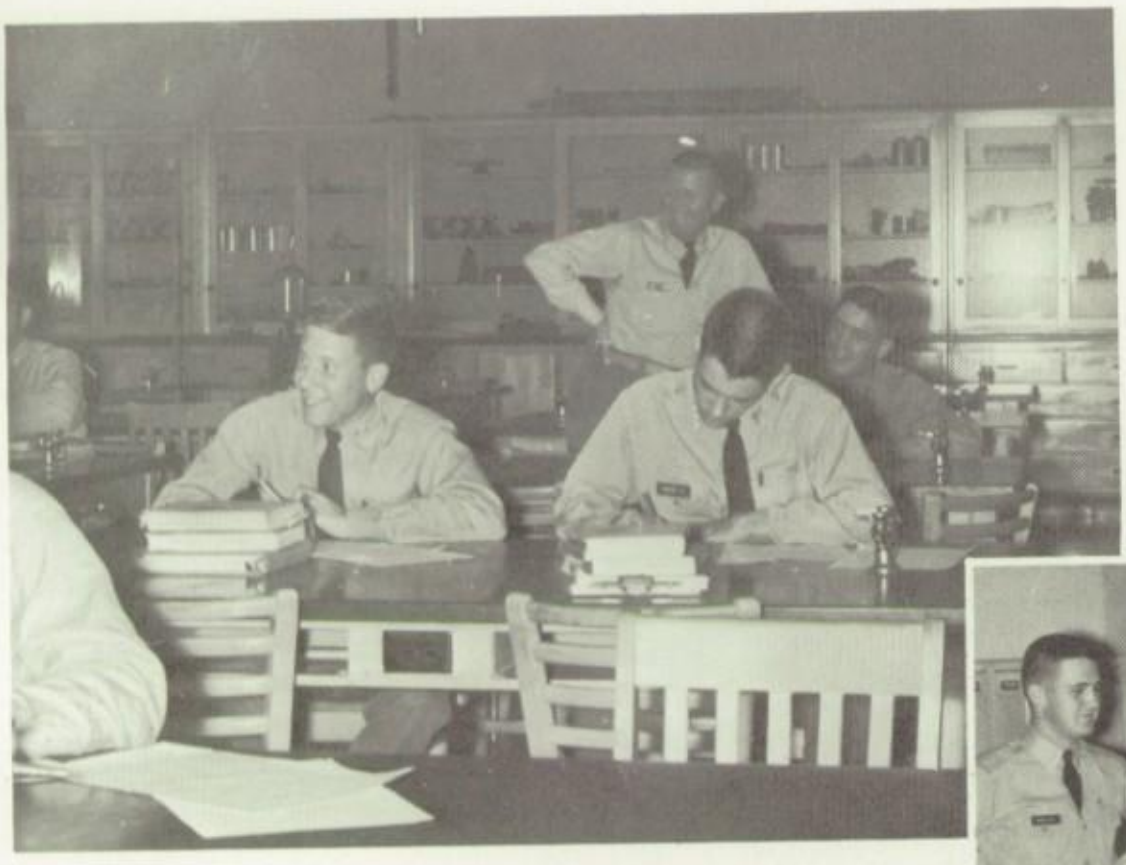


Major Hinson explains a complicated math problem to his Algebra I class.

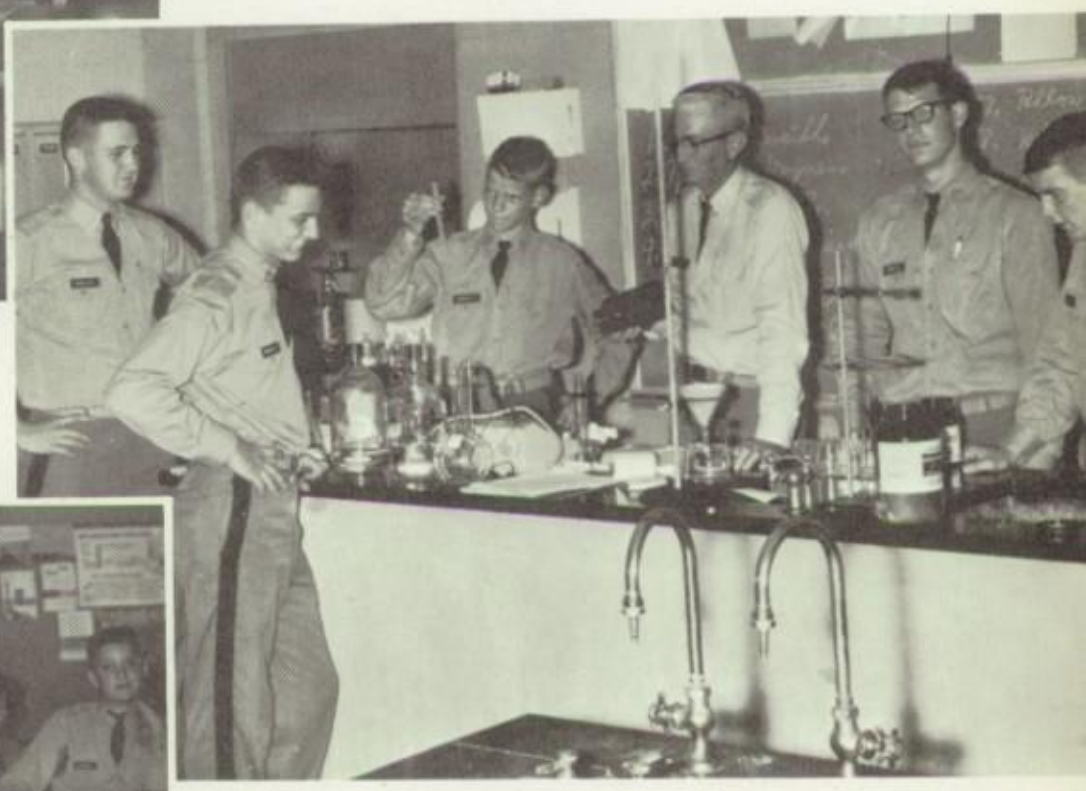
Captain Smith — seventh grade math instructor.

The math department at U.M.S. has one of the highest developed systems of curriculum and instruction in the state.

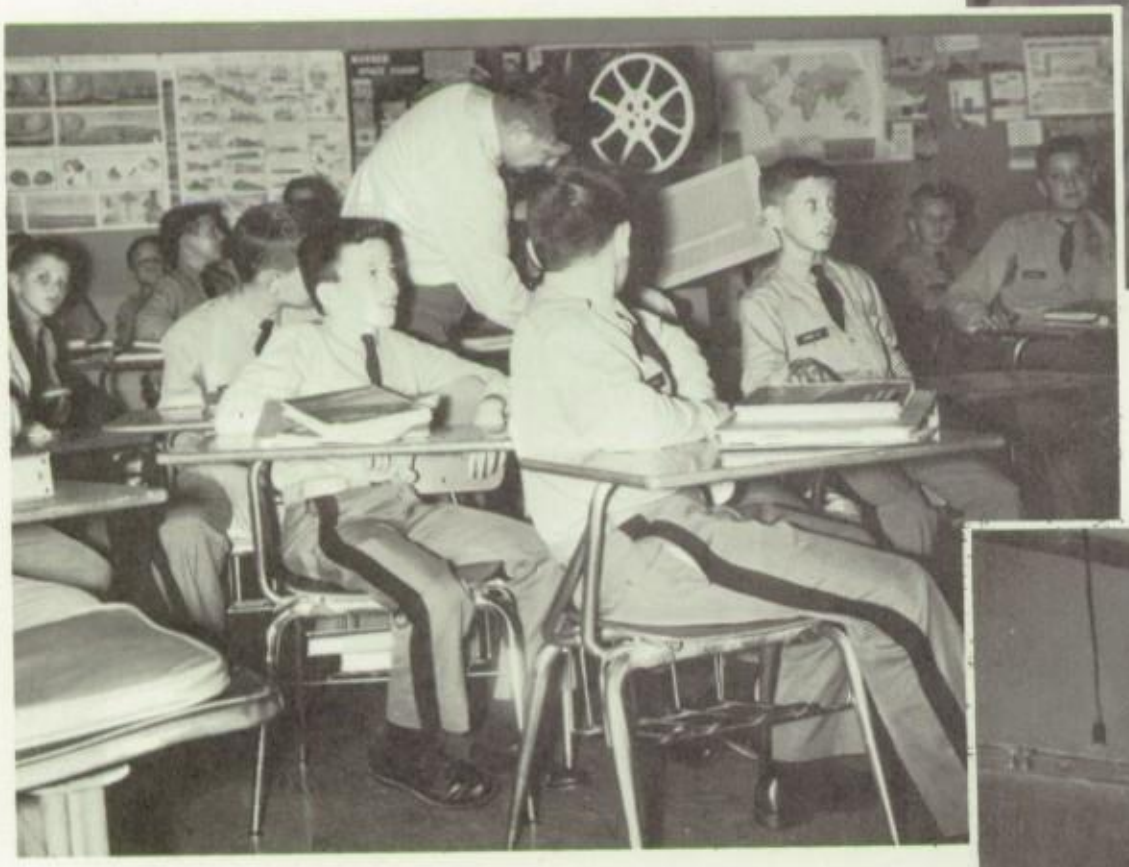
SCIENCE



Captain Simmons and his class laugh off a minor error.



Major Killcreas examines Burnham's measurement to ensure accuracy.



Captain Breaux prepares a film for his class.

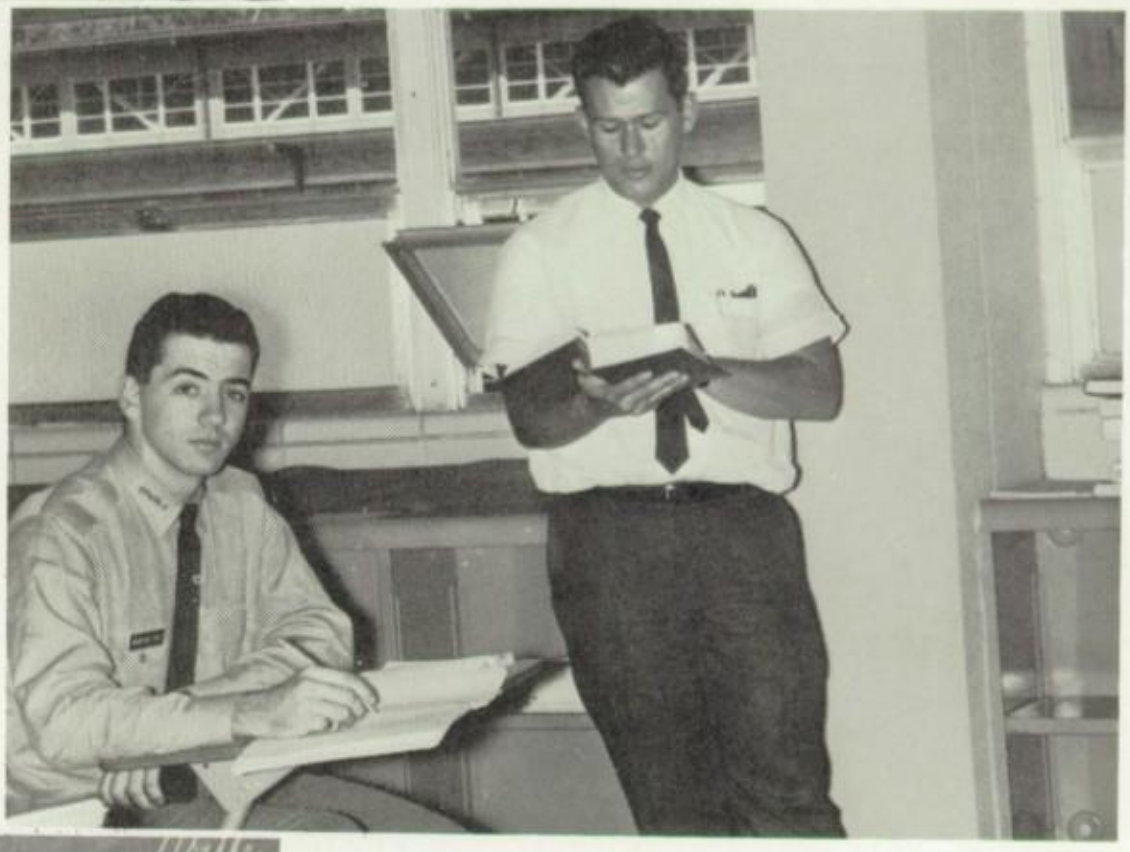
ENGLISH

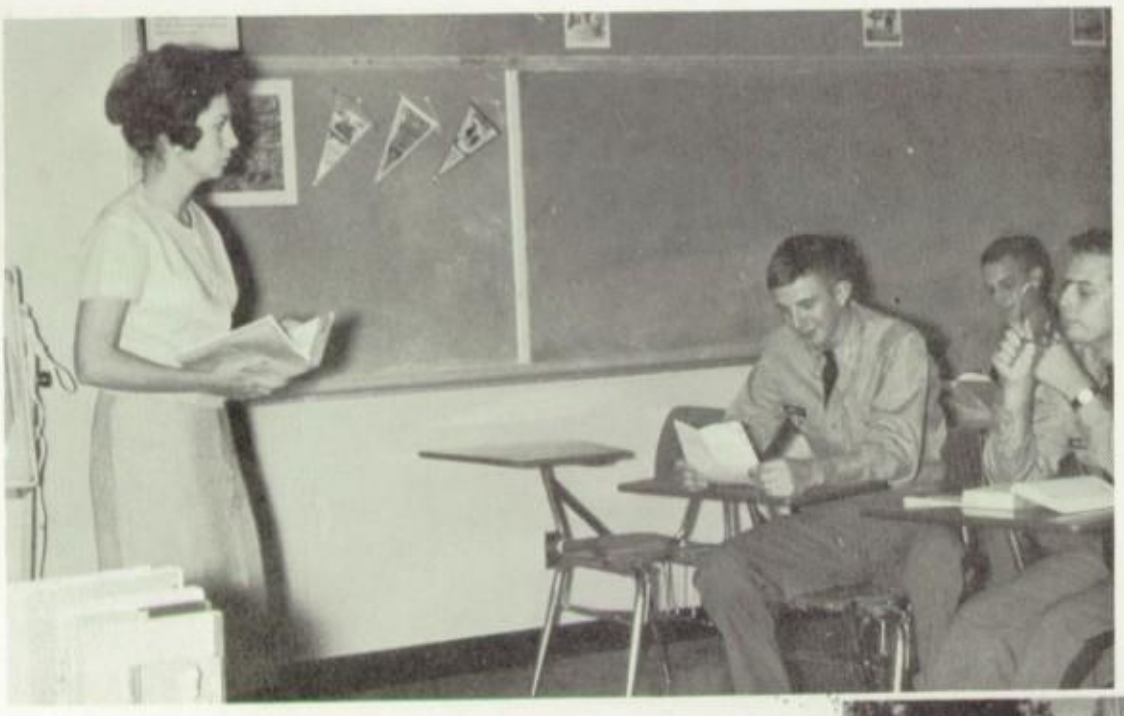
Mrs. Carlin broadens the ninth and tenth graders by giving them a foundation in Rhetoric, Speech, Literature, and Poetry.



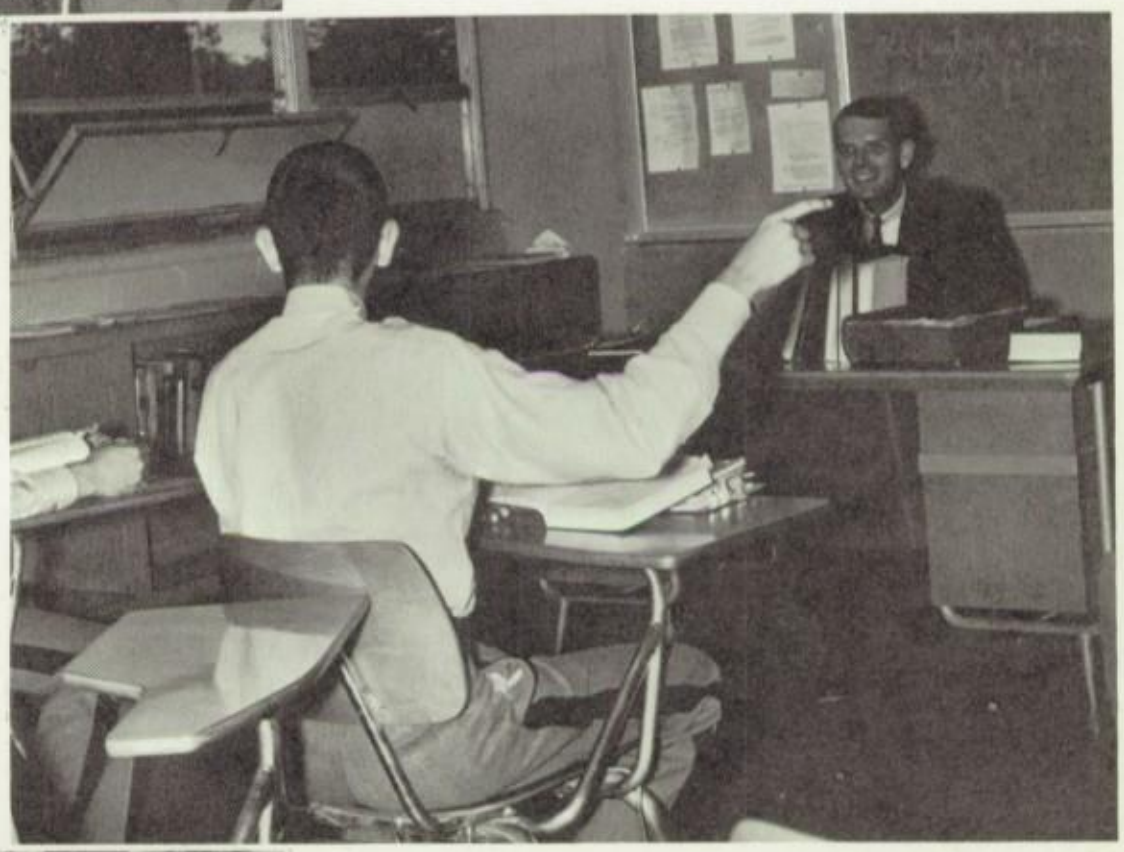
Captain Dennis prepares the Juniors and Seniors for the menacing freshman English in college.

Captain Owen sets the eighth graders to work.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES



Mrs. Villaverde instructs her students on the finer points of Spanish.

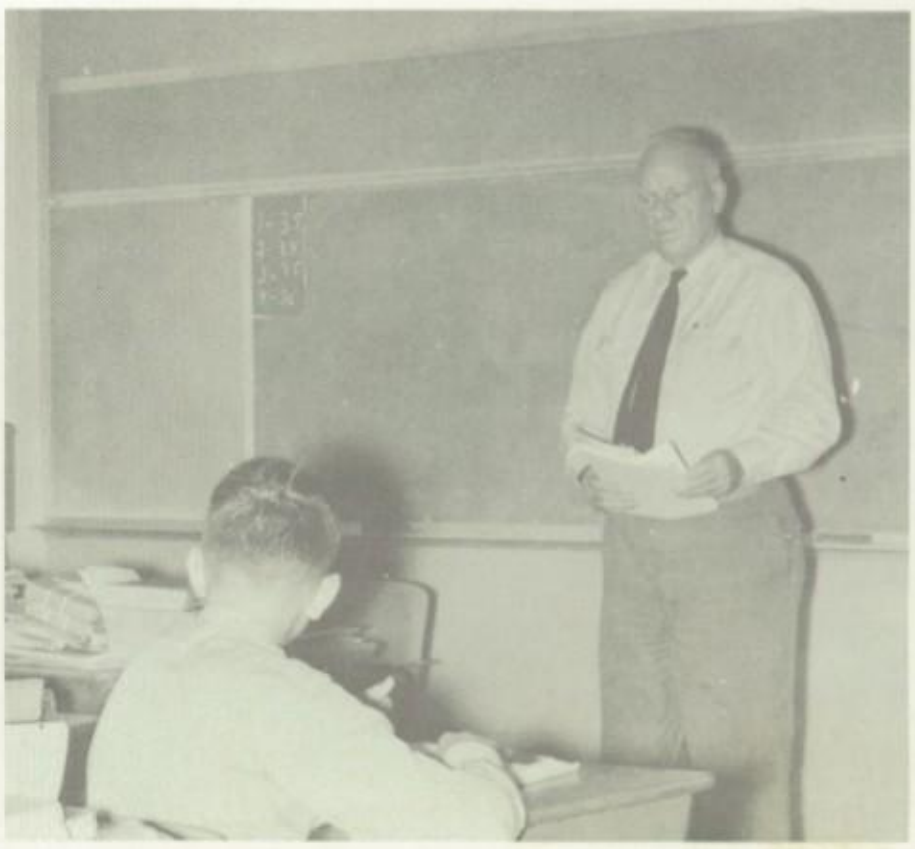


Captain Thames gives private instruction to a German II student.

Now why couldn't you do that the first time?

Ideals are like the stars — we never reach them but we can chart our course by them.

SOCIAL STUDIES



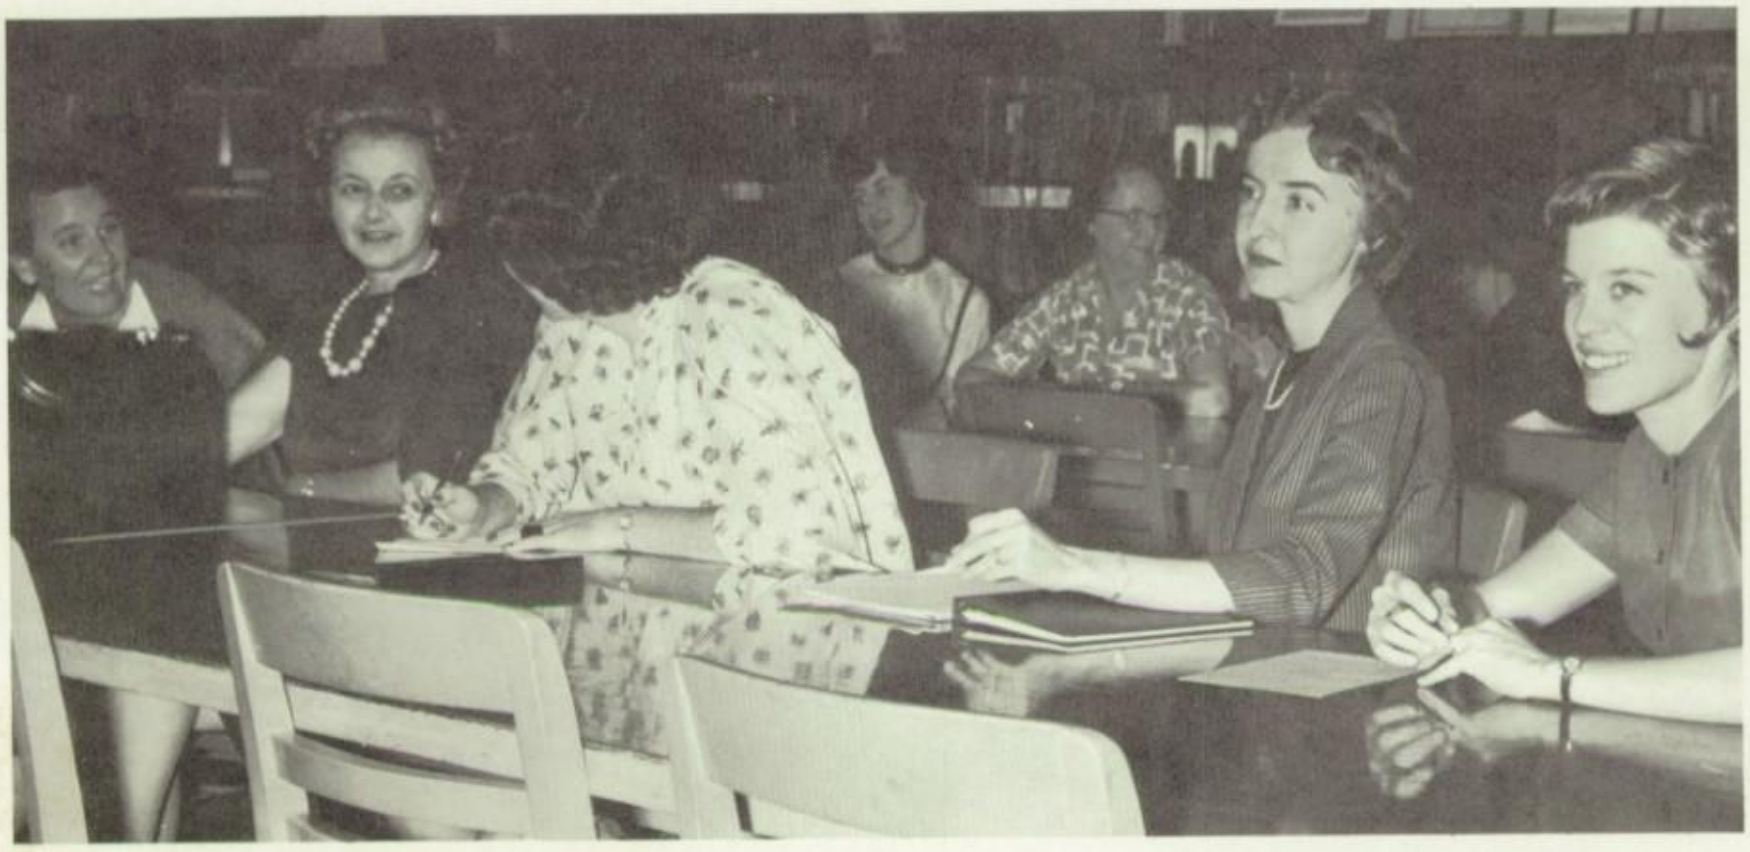
The social sciences attempt to understand the actions of man himself — to gain insight into the consequences of his activities as an individual and in group life.

HUMANITIES

Problems of man are the problems of the humanities course — to clarify ideas and institutions by argument rather than by force and dogma.

"Character may be manifested in the great moments but it is made in the small ones."

ELEMENTARY



In faculty meetings such as the one shown above, teachers discuss their plans for the coming weeks and plan together to keep our elementary school the best in the state.

The boys at U.M.S. all agree that the lunch hour is the best time of the school day.

"Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom: and with all thy getting get understanding."

Captain McCollum starts the elementary boys singing at an early age.

ELEMENTARY

Boy! She just did move in time.

Some of Miss Yuille's boys go wild at the sight of a camera.

Miss Huey's class has a dress rehearsal.

I think we're being followed.

Mrs. Brown teaches her students the important skill of typing.

Major Filippini shows some of his students how to draw a correct figure. This course is very useful to our future engineers.

CLASSES

Cooperation is the way to happiness; selfishness is the way to misery.

ORGANIZATIONS

The author of peace in a war-like world is he who freely serves his fellow men.

SERVICE

HONOR COUNCIL

The Honor System at U. M. S. is a code of ethics governing the student body. The code states, "At U.M.S., a Cadet will not lie; a Cadet will not cheat; a Cadet will not steal; and a Cadet will report all violations of the above."

The Honor Council is a representative body elected by their classmates, to act on cases and keep the students aware at all times of the Honor System.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

The National Honor Society, whose basic principles are Character, Scholarship, Leadership, and Service, has raised its standards and increased its activities to become a more active service organization.

ACTIVITIES

"Behold how good and pleasant it is for men to dwell together in peace."

FELLOWSHIP

CONFEDERATE MEMORIAL DAY

The Crack Platoon, Colors, and Band of U.M.S. formed the honor guard at Confederate Memorial Day Ceremonies last spring.

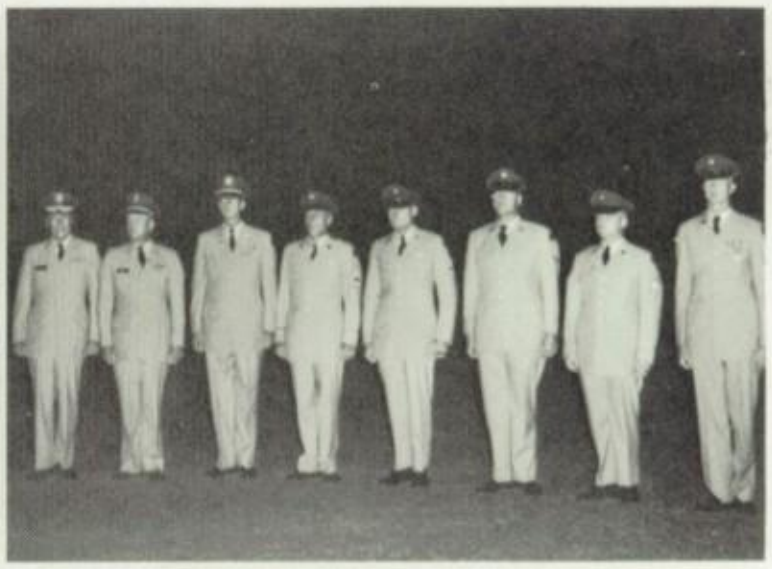
For over seventy years, the Cadets of University Military School have stood to pay homage to their honored dead.

The Cadets have always respected those who fought to preserve their way of life, and they will continue to learn their lessons from the past.

FIELD DAY

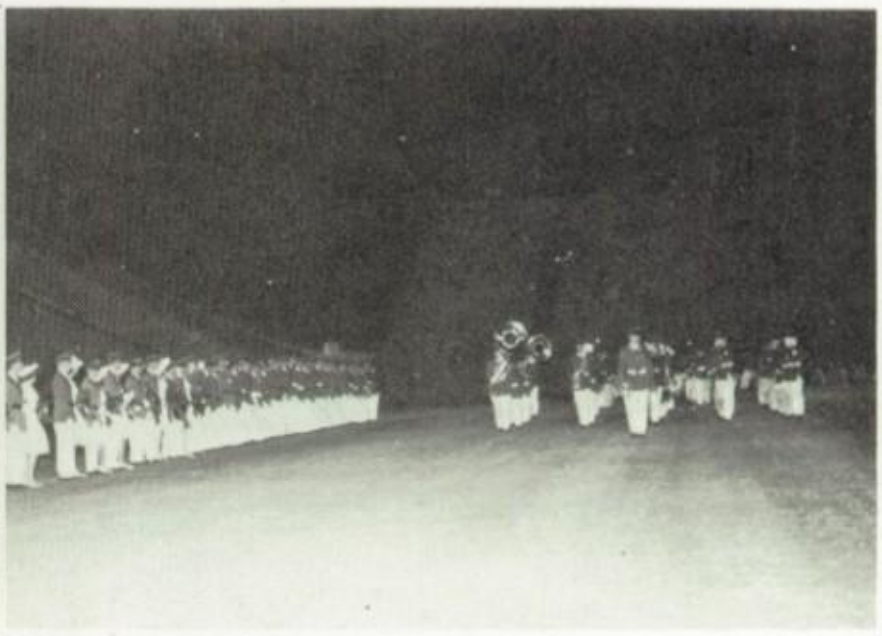
Last spring at Field Day, company competition was won by "C" Company.

COMPETITIVE DRILL



At Competitive Drill last spring, the company competition was won by Company "A" commanded by Cadet Captain James Hubert Coil, III.

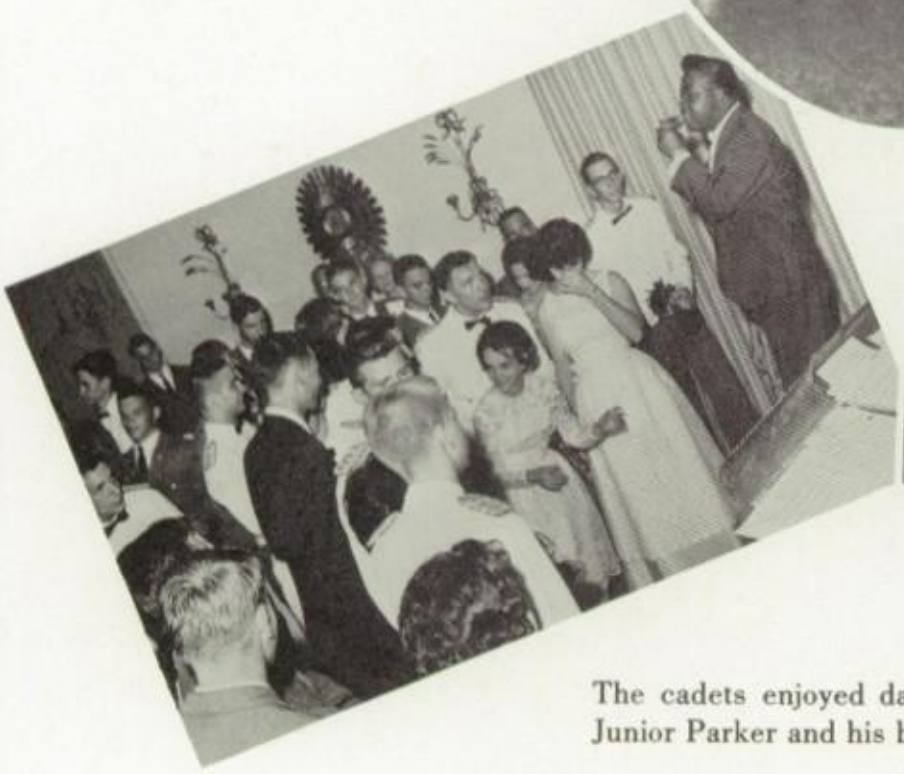
For many years, the judges of the Competitive Drill have been from Brookley Air Force Base and Spring Hill College.

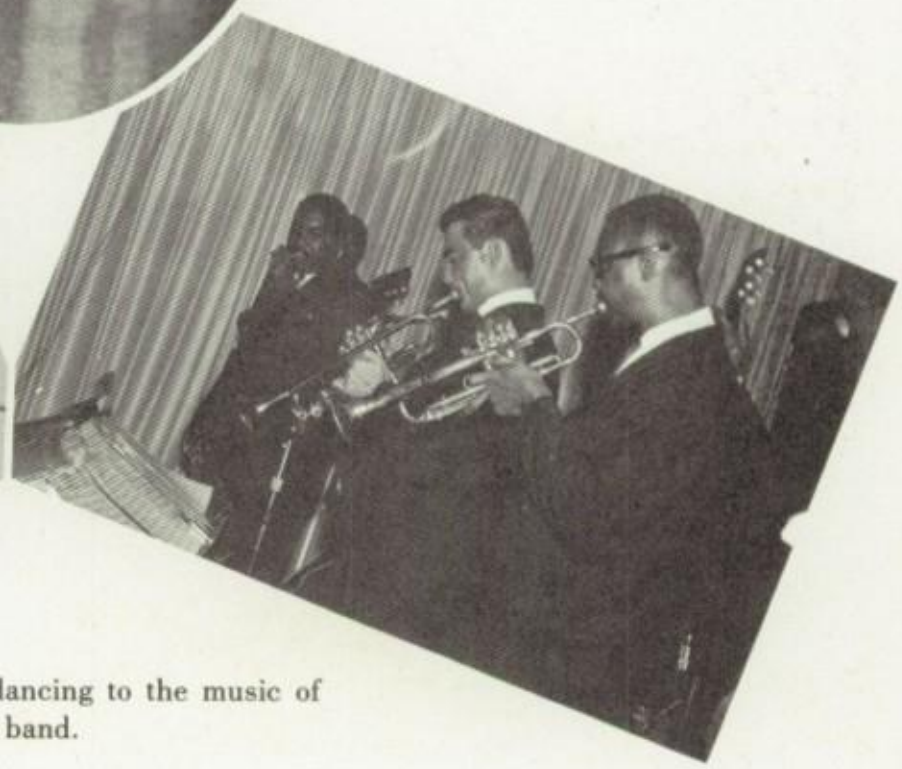


GRADUATION HOP

Each year at the Graduation Hop, the medal is awarded to the commander of the winning company. Here Cadet Captain James Hubert Coil, III is presented the medal by his mother for his winning "A" Company.

The Hop scenery was constructed to resemble a Japanese setting and go along with the theme of "Sayonara", which means good-bye. Major Filippini was responsible for building the props.





The cadets enjoyed dancing to the music of Junior Parker and his band.

BACCALAUREATE

The Baccalaureate Service is a time for the individual Senior to pause for contemplation and spiritual reflection. It is a time for looking at the past and looking to the future; for thinking of things accomplished and accepting the challenge of years to come. It is a time for memory and a time for dreams. Baccalaureate Service is the Benediction to the Senior's high school year.

Doctor Howard M. Reeves delivered last year's Baccalaureate address at the Dauphin Way Methodist Church.

Cadet Major William Edington is shown again, left, escorting Miss Stella Hillard.

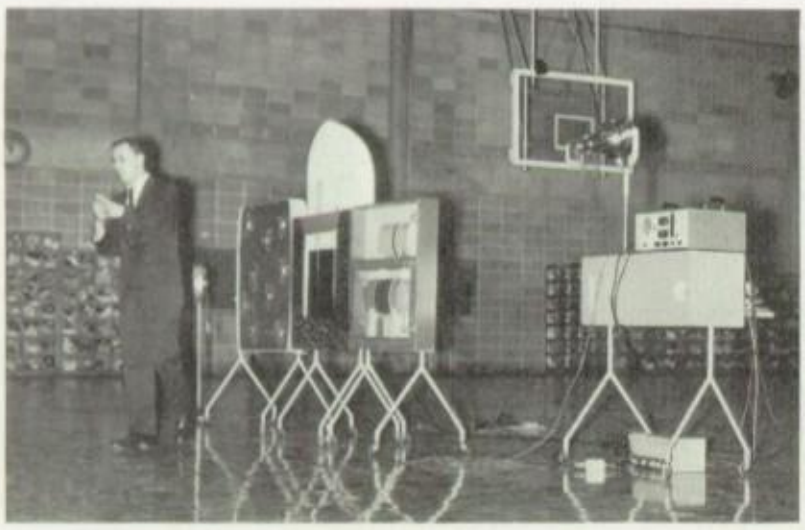
HERE AND THERE

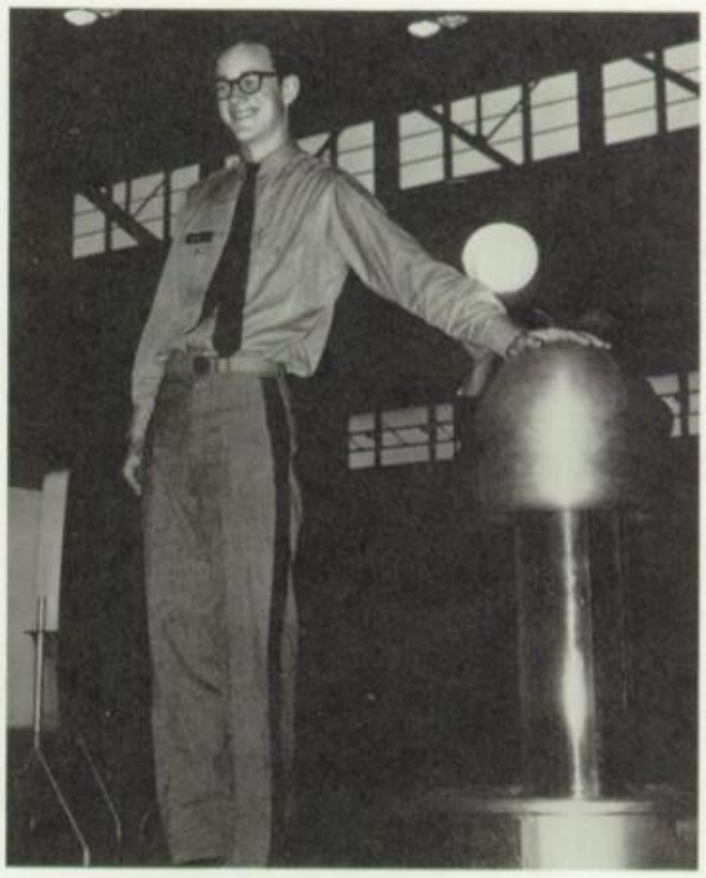
This year Hootenannys, which were held during the lunch period, were very popular.

On January 23, the Special Choir of the University of Miami gave a most enjoyable program.

The program of the University of Miami Choir included several religious songs and spirituals along with comedy skits and a good folk singing group.

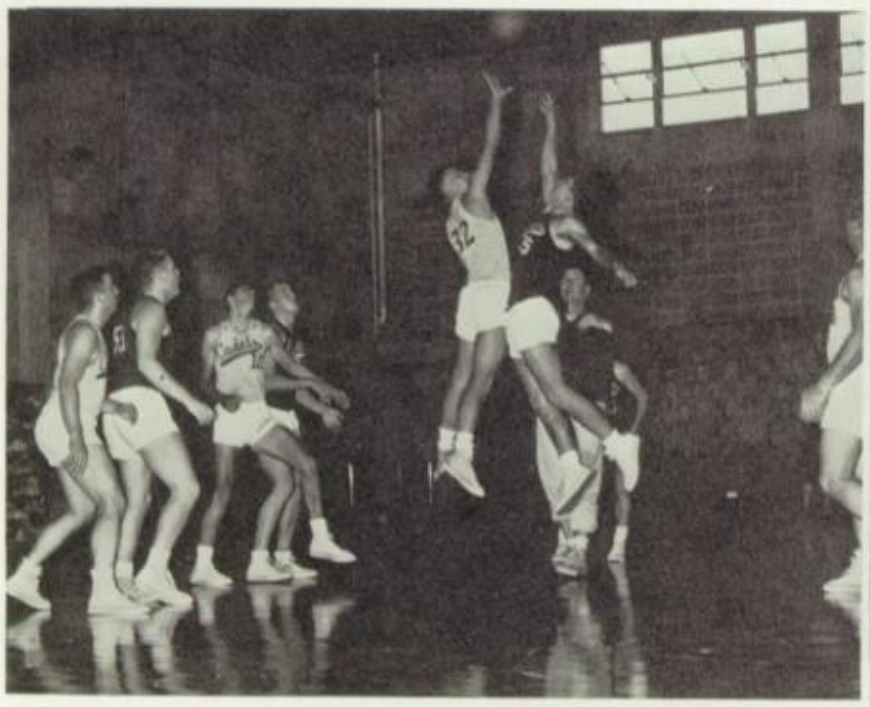


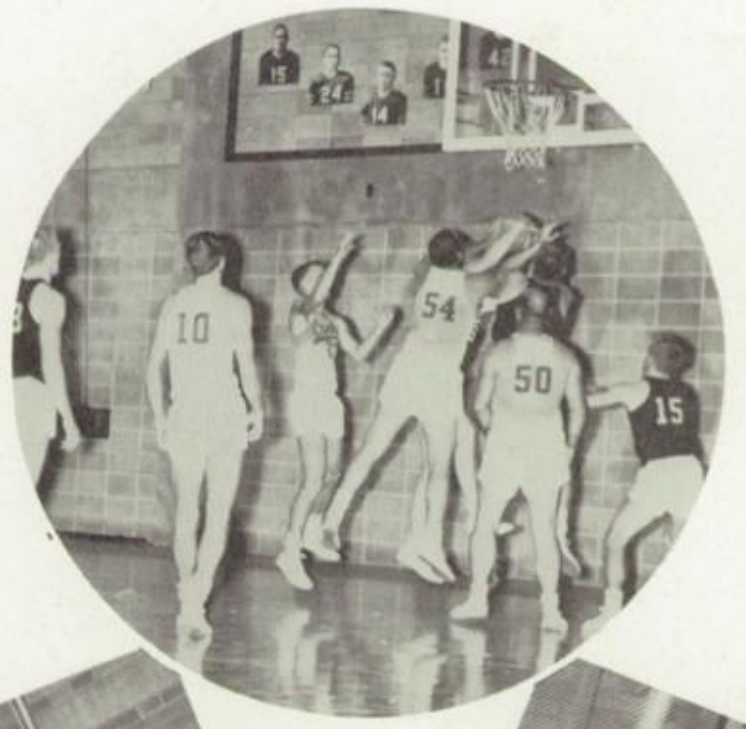
The students enjoyed this atomic demonstration given during a Friday Guidance period. It included several experiments, some of which used the students themselves.



Robbie Bacon was a guinea pig for an atomic demonstration in Guidance.

VARSITY-FACULTY BASKETBALL





This year the student body enjoyed a very exciting basketball game between the Varsity team and the Faculty. After three overtimes the Varsity finally edged ahead to win by two points. The score was 38-36.

HOMECOMING

Homecoming exercises are begun by the presentation of the battalion after a short performance by the Crack Platoon early in the afternoon.

Shown here, the sponsors are escorted onto the field after being introduced to the guests.

Senior Alumni watch the battalion pass in review.

1963

Shown above, are Peg Hutchings, Senior Battalion Sponsor, left; Mrs. Herron Lord, who was in charge of the open house following the program; and Barbara Kearley, "C" Company Sponsor.

JUNIOR HIGH HOP

Last spring the Student Council sponsored a prom for students in the seventh through the ninth grades. There were call-outs for the in-coming and out-going officers of these classes. The music was provided by the Montclairs. This semi-formal dance turned out to be a tremendous success.

AMERICA'S JUNIOR MISS PAGEANT

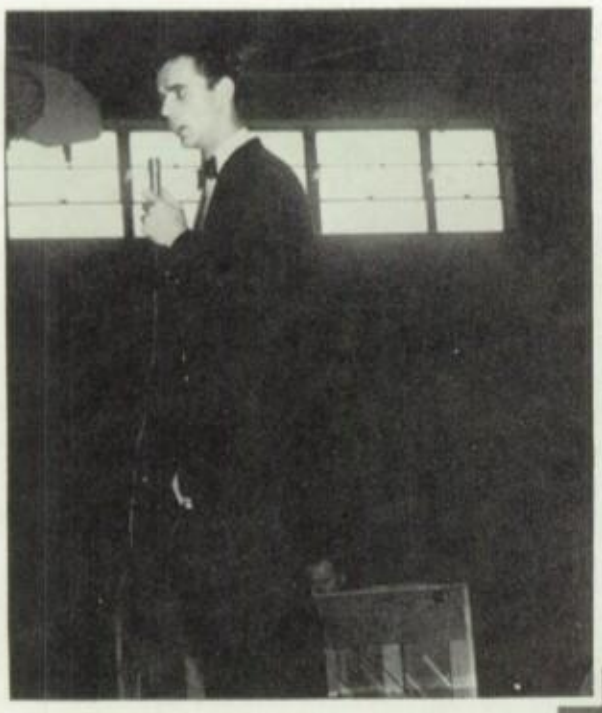
THE SENIOR CLASS PLAY



Shown above, Andy Wing entertains by singing several popular songs on his show. This is only one of many fabulous programs on W.H.A.T. TV owned and operated by the Senior Class of U.M.S. Left, The Sportsmen perform as a really great folk-singing group. Below, Wayne Lord appears on the Andy Wing Show.

On W.H.A.T. there is entertainment for all kinds of people. For those who prefer opera there is the operetta entitled "Cinderella", shown above. A big event this year was the Miss UMS Pageant, produced and directed by the staff of W.H.A.T. TV.

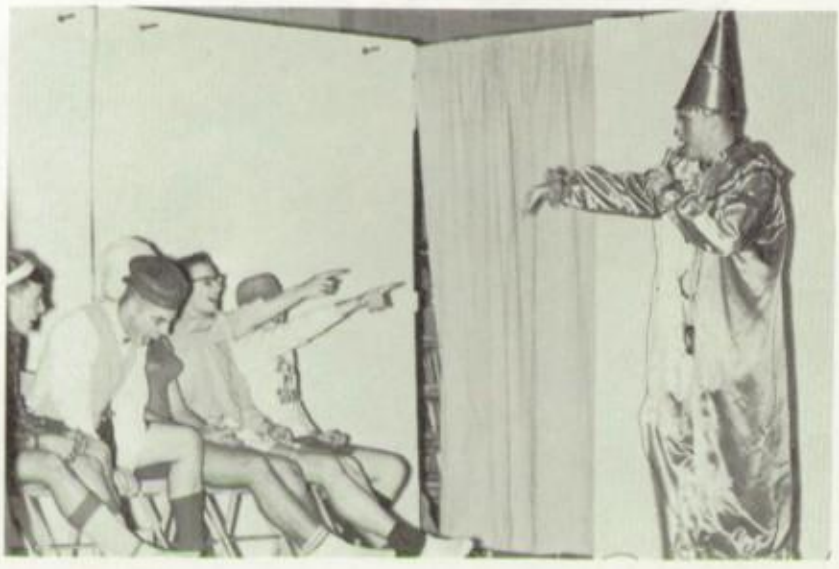
A NIGHT WITH WHAT

A combo plays Dixieland music on WHAT's Musical Variety Show.

1964

Double your pleasure, double your fun.

Sits down before you falls down.



WHAT starts its day of programs with Uncle Freddie's Kiddie Show.

The Adventures of Tarzan starring Ramon Hannah.

The Senior Class is indebted to Captain Roger Dennis and Major Filippini without whose efforts the production of this play would have been impossible.

UMS 21 - ROBERTSDALE 0

The Cadets' first game of the season was against Robertsdale at Ladd Stadium. The Bulldogs' first touchdown came in the second quarter with Alardo driving in from the four yard line; Anderson's kick was good, making the score 7 to 0 for the Cadets. Anderson came back in the third quarter for the second score and P.A.T. making the score 14 to 0. Then Barnhill followed up with a T.D. late in the fourth quarter and Anderson again kicked the extra point for a final score of 21 to 0.

Get the ball, Tommy!

Five, four, three, two . . .

Watch out!

Milling makes the stop.

UMS 7 - DAVIDSON 0

The UMS Cadets met a fired up Davidson team on September 12 and came out the victors. The warriors soon discovered that it wasn't going to be as easy as they had thought, the first half ended in a scoreless tie. But the Cadets, who did well in the second half all season, came back for the only score early in the third quarter by Anderson who then kicked the extra point.

Go Jerry!

Good catch!

UMS 7 - MURPHY 20

On September 20 the Cadets lost their first game this year to the Murphy Panthers who were later rated number one in the state. Tommy Damson was the defensive standout but despite his efforts the bigger Panthers won in the end with a 20-7 victory.

Barnhill in for the kill.

Block!!

UMS 40 - FAIRHOPE 19

After a week of rest, U.M.S. got back into action by trouncing the Fairhope Pirates 40-19. Frankie Alardo led the Cadets with 140 yards rushing. McLaughlin, Grimes, and Anderson scored TD's for the Soldiers and Anderson kicked for six extra points.

Damson makes the tackle.

UMS 14 - BAY MINETTE 0

For the Cadets fifth game of the season they traveled to Bay Minette. The battle proved to be a defensive one with the whole defensive unit putting in a fine effort; Bert Milling was a standout. On a third and twenty situation the Cadets came through with a twenty-five yard pass from Grimes to McLaughlin. Anderson then pushed it over from the seven and kicked the conversion. In the second quarter a ten yard pass from Grimes to Alardo and a successful point after touchdown gave UMS a 14-0 lead. This proved to be the final score.

Morgan dives in.

Good lick, Mickey!

UMS 27 - THEODORE 6

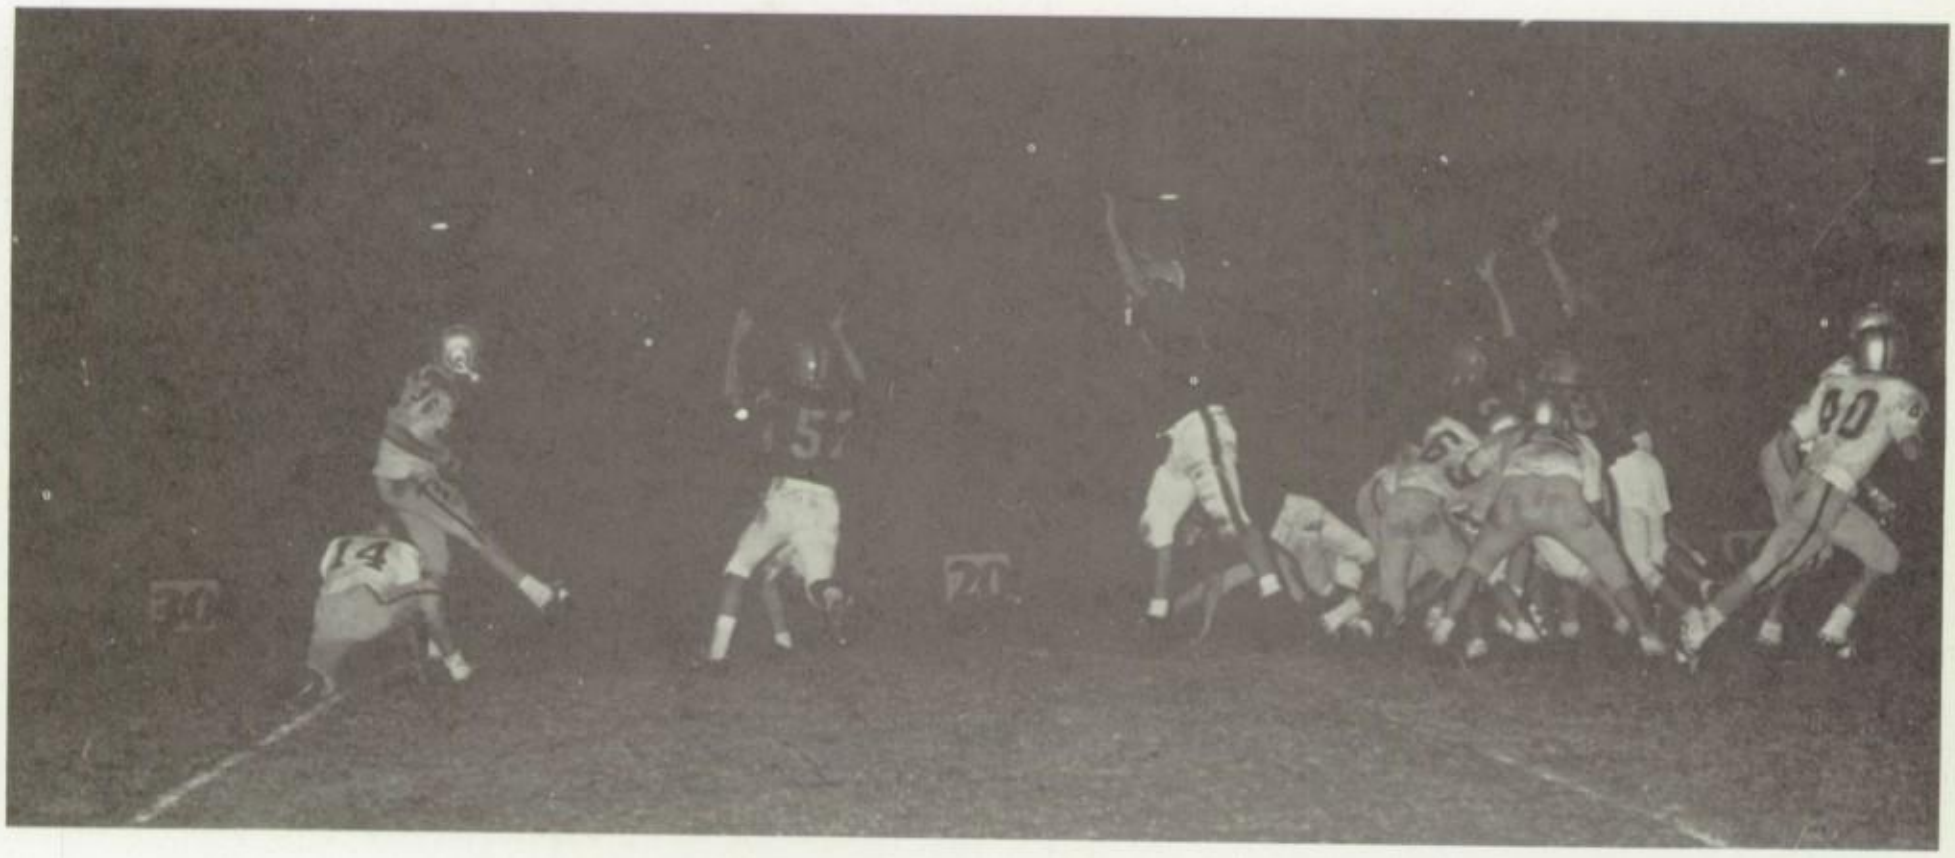
For the second year in a row the Cadets marched over the Theodore Bobcats before an overflow crowd. The Cadets won the toss and from then on it was their show all the way. McLaughlin scored once on a pass from Grimes and Anderson scored three TD's from two, three, and sixty-three yards out. The final score was U.M.S.27-Theodore 6.

Where is the ball?

UMS 31 - GREENVILLE 0

The Bulldogs' third game on the road was against Greenville High School at Greenville, Alabama. The Cadets marched to an early lead with a touchdown by Alardo set up by Hillard. From then on it was easy going for the Cadets with a 21-0 lead at the half. The final score was 31 to 0 with Alardo and Hillard scoring touchdowns and a 35 yard field goal by Anderson.

Crunch!



It's up; it's good!

Stop that man!

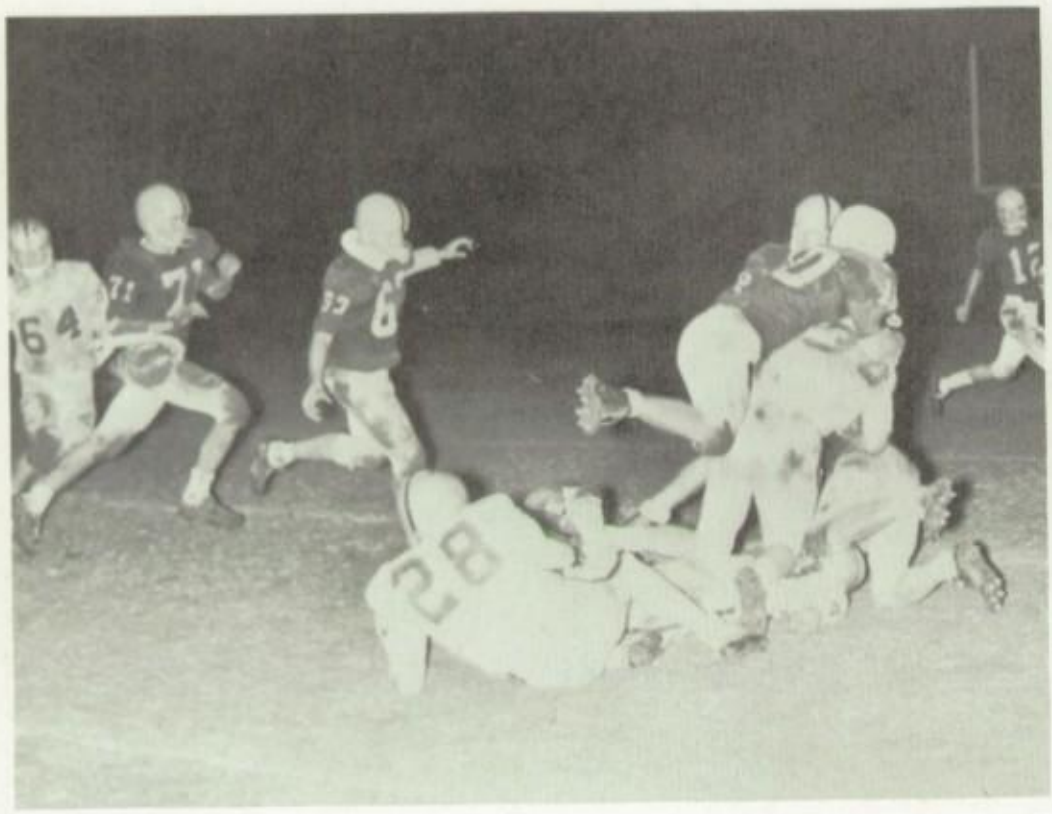
UMS 35 - McGILL 0

On November 1 the Cadets took on McGill Institute at Ladd Stadium for their eighth game of the season. The fired up Cadets proceeded to score the first three times they got their hands on the ball with only the end of the half stopping the score at 21-0. After the intermission Alardo took the pigskin in from the five after a McGill fumble on the 25. Anderson then made six points with a five yard plunge after a 60 yard interception runback by Ladd. Anderson finished the scoring with his fifth successful conversion attempt for the night. Final Score: UMS-35 McGill-0.

UMS 14 - FOLEY 21

November 9 the Bulldogs clashed with the Foley Lions at Ladd Stadium. At the end of the first half the score was tied 7-7, but by the end of the game Foley had overpowered the Cadets to end the game Foley 21 UMS 14. Again Bert Milling and Tommy Damson were the defensive stand-outs.

The Soldiers take the field.



The Bull

OOOOOH!

Anderson scores.

UMS 32 - B.C. RAIN 2

U.M.S. soundly trounced the Rain Raiders for their homecoming game. Rusty Anderson led the Cadets' attack with 150 yards rushing, three touchdowns, and two extra points. Barnhill and McLaughlin also made touchdowns. The final score was 32-2 which gave the Cadets an 8 win 2 loss record for the season.

An Important Message for Seniors Interested in College Scholarships

Six seniors from the Mobile area will be awarded Bellas Hess college or university scholarships for the 1964 school year.

This is part of the Bellas Hess Scholarship program, which will, this year, award 72 educational grants to students across the nation.

Awards will be made on the basis of scholastic achievement and financial need.

Prominent area educators will compose the final award committee. Your school principal will have full details of the Bellas Hess scholarship plan.
